BELIEVED SEALING VESSEL DESTROYED BY BLAST AT SEA

SURVIVING MEMBERS CREW REPORTED FLOATING SEA-WARD ON ICE FLOES

ST. JOHNS, N. F., March 16.—(A)/—Marooned on loose ice pack in the North Atlantic, surviving members of the crew of an unidentified vessel, believed to be the sealing ship Viking, the sealing ship Viking, were drifting seaward with the floes off White Bay, messages reaching the government from that point said today. The vessel had burned to the water's edge, the message said. The Viking, owned by Bowring Brothers, Ltd., of St. John's had been reported in the ice near Horse Island and the message said men were seen endeavoring to reach shore and wreckage also was seen from the shore.

The Newfoundland government immediately ordered the wrecking tug Foundation Franklin to the seene.

About 140 persons were reported aboard the steamship, which was in command of Captain A. Kean. Varick Frissell, 26, a widely known traveller, was making motion pictures.

The sea in the vicinity of the island has been badly jammed with ice and the Viking had been reported in the midst of these.

The message said the burning wreckage of a ship could be seen ual because March 15 came on Sunday.

From these statements the treasury expects to forecast during the fortnight how great the deficit will be at the end of the current fiscal year next June 30.

Officials estimated $525,000,000 would blow into the treasury with the returns, which must be accompanied by at least one-fourth payment of the total due. Last year the first quarterly payments reached $628,000,000. Officials believed the receipts for 1930 will be about $100,000,000 less because of the depression.

Today will be one of the biggest money days since the war. A total of $2,095,261,150 will be received and $1,138,000,000 expended through income tax receipts, the sale of bonds and certificates of (Continued on Page 5).

Aid Appeals Increase; United Charity Funds Dwindle; Need Money MILITARY MEN WOULD BE

Although spring weather has aided in curtailing some of the suffering in Corsicana, the number of appeals for aid are increasing rather than diminishing Miss Augusta Helm, executive secretary of the United Charities said Monday morning. The organization is also faced with the necessity of stringently curtailing their relief measures unless their funds are largely augmented at once.

Many families are now being forced to seek aid from the United Charities after making a desperate struggle to maintain their independence. They have exhausted their own resources, credits, and those of their friends and relatives, and with all their reserves gone are facing only the limited asistance which they can expect from the United Charities as their only means of sustenance. THREE WEEKS AGO

JOLIET, Ill., March 16.—(P)—
Warden Henry C. Hill said today the Rev. George Whitmeyer, state penitentiary chaplain, had been asked to resign three weeks ago after the discovery of evidence that he had been fomenting disaffection and carrying letters to and from prisoners.

Investigators for the "Secret Six" crime-fighting committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce demanded of the prison administration that Chaplain Whitmayer be removed.

His resignation was received Feb. 25, three days after the fatal ambush of three escaping prisoners whose death he called "murder at the hands of prison guards."

The defense ninned its main

The defense pinned its main hope in an attempt to establish an alibi for the cold-eyed St. Louisan—that he was in the Riveria hotel at the exact hour Lingle was slain. In addition. Brothers' lawyers were hoping to use two anamalous situations in is behalf-the arrest of Frankle under a technical indictined for the killing, and a voluntary con-fession by Frank Bell that he par-ticipated in the Lingle murder. ANNOUNCEMENT FROM KAN SAS CITY FIRST STORY OF MEN'S WHEREABOUTS

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 14 (A)-Paul Cline, district or ganizer of the communist party, announced today that C. J. Coder and Lewis Hurst, communist organizers reported to have been kidnapped in Dallas, Tex., last Thursday, have arrived here and were being treated for injuries inflicted by a mob that flogabouts and fate of Coder and Hurst.

The announcement was the first definite word as to the whereabouts and fate of Coder and Hurst.

Cline issued a statement blaming the Ku Klux plan for the adduction and charged connivance on the part of members of the Dallas police department.

He said Coder and Hurst were being cared for a private homes here and their condition was such that they could not be interviewed. The men were badly beaten, he said, by a party of armed men who kidnapped them in front of the Dallas city hall immediately upon their release from jail and took them into the country.

"The comrades were beaten with ropes and left unconscious." Cline said. He added that they were cared for at a cablin near the scene and recuperated sufficiently to make their way to Kansas City.

Coder and Hurst had been jailed in Dallas for organizing a street descene ration.

represent communists again.

Cline said Hurst and Coder were cared for by negro farmers for six days after the negroes found them lying by the side of a road near Dallas the morning after the alleged beating.

Both organizers, Cline said, will return to Dallas to continue their work after their recovery.

The statement, prepared and issued by Cline, bore the signature of O. W. Lenney, who signed it as "secretary of the Kansas district, International Labor Defense."

Report from New York

NEW YORK, March 14.—(P)—

A statement from International Labor Defense today said Lewis Hurst and C. J. Coder, communist organizers, reported kidnapped, in Dallas, Texas, March 5, reached Kansas City yesterday.

Their story, as given out here, was that after being sentenced to jail for starting a demonstration they were sized by a posse, spirited away and beaten into unconsclousness with doubled ropes.

They took a train for Kansas City, but apparently went into a stream from which they were rescued by a negro farmer, who shietered them for five days.

COURTHOUSE NEWS.

Attorney to Be Heard
DALLAS, March 14.—(P)—
George Clifton Edwards, attorney kidnapped last Thursday with his two communist clients, Lewis Hurst and C. J. Coder, who were reported to have been flogged, today said he would go before the grand jury Monday and tell all he knows about the kidnapping. He returned yesterday from Eastland, where he had been trying a case. He said he had not yet received a subpoena.

Edwards answered questions received a subpoena.

Edwards answered questions if freely but could add nothing to a statement he gave newspapers last Saturday. He said that after he had arranged Thursday with Chief of Police Claude Trammell for the release of Coder and Hurst from custody, the three of them were abducted from the steps of the city hall by a band of armed men. He was taken into the country in a separate automobile and later released undarmed. He did not see Coder and d. He did not see Coder and ied. Ho did not see Coder and Hurst again.

Edwards would not say whether he could identify his abductors. He said he would do all in his power to induce Coder and Hurst to return here and testify before the grand jury. District Attorney William McCraw said he would personally pay the expenses of the communists if they would return and would furnish them a guard during their stay. McCraw admitted the controversy between Eddie Barr, Dallas Dispatch reporter, and Norman Register and Owen George, assistant district attorneys from whom he said he received first information for the story of the kidnapping, had no bearing on a solution of the case. Chlef of Police Trammell said he did not believe any police officer was connected with the kidnapping, but if anyone was, the napping, but if anyone was, the man would be discharged and prosecuted.

The grand jury today had summoned local managers of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies to investigate telegrams sent out of Dallas and received here by J. C. Papeun, state secretary to the organization to which Hurst and Coder belonged.

senate passed, 22 to 17, today and sent back to the house for approval of amendments, the Carpenter oil proration bill.

Passage of the bill came after the senate had voted last night 21 to 19 to recommend the measure be passed after accepting amendments of the oil committee which would limit application of the proposal.

Amendments which the senate made to the bill would prohibit the public service commission, with which would rest administration of proration, from ordering drilling stopped and from ordering into receivership oil companies which might violate the act.

Passed earlier in the session by the house, the bill now goes back to that body for consideration of the amendments. The measure oil provided to provide the proposal.

AUSTIN, March 16.—(P)—The house today adopted the free conference report on a bill by Ren. Young of Wellington which would permit county school trustees to issue interest bearing warrants to pay the salaries of teachers. Young said the bill was badly needed if schools in the drought areas were to remain open.

The wararnts would bear interest from issues to March 1, 1932, and school trustees would be prohibited from issuing warrants aggregating more than 80 per cent of the anticipated revenue.

The vote was 110 to 5 and if adopted by the senate by a four-fifth vote, may be put into immediate effect.

Observing the day in a fitting manner, the senate planned to meet only 30 minutes this morning and spend the rest of the time ing and spend the rest of the time in compilitee sessions.

It was thought possible that during that half hour the senate would finally pass a bill allowing schools in the drought area to remain open their full terms this year. A free conference committee got together on terms of the bill vesterday.

The proposed measure, introduced by Representative Young of Wellington, would permit school trustees to issue interest-bearing warrants to pay teachers' salaries. The bill was considered necessary because of tax revenue deficiencies in certain sections caused by conomic conditions and the postponement of the delinquent date

Terrell declared against any further agitation of the prohibition question, declaring that as long as it forged to the front the democrats never would be united. He also argued the state legislature should get down to solving some of the state's eco-nomic problems rather than con-tinually delve into national politics, stating that if a majority of the people wanted the constitution amended, let them amend

Keller declared he was tired hearing Raskob called "dirty names" every other day in the names" every other day in the house and said good democrats would stay by their party leaders regardless of personal opinions on certain questions. Southern demo-crats were, and still are, strong for President Wilson despite the fact he vetoed the prohibition law

Governor Sterling said last night he had telegraphed assurance the two communists would be adequately protected.
District Attorney William Mc-Craw, accompanied by E. K. Mead Dallas newspaper man, returned late yesterday from Kansas City to interview Hurst and Coder, in an effort to persuade them to return to testify before the grand jury. They expressed doubt that local authorities in Dallas would protect them. McCraw could not be reached last night for a statement.

George Clifton Edwards, Dallas attorney who represented them was expected to appear before the grand jury today to relate his version of the affair. He claimed he also was abducted from the Dallas city hall steps March 5 by an armed band who kidnapped Hurst and Coder, but he was released after being warned not to "represent communists" again.

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING TAKEN THIS YEAR BABY CHICKS

Considerable interest is being shown in baby chicks this spring by Navarro county people, Calvin. Pigg, county demonstration agent, states, and indications now are that more interest than usual is to be taken in this phase of farm endeavor during 1931.

"Late hatched chicks are not the most profitable," according to bulletins issued from Texas A. and M. College, which point out that they miss good prices for the cockerel, and have greater disease cockerei, that have considered appearance. droopiness, sleepiness. ged appearance, droopiness, sleepiness, paleness of heads an shanks leg weakness and paralysis. Infected chicks should be confined in a house, keep everything dry and dry clean quarters daily, feed liquid milk instead of water and limit mash and grain.

Diarrhea is another disease that caused considerable trouble in this vicinity, Mr. Pigg said.

MINISTER RESIGNS.

church session will take action on the resignation Sunday.

Hatchery! Hatchery!

This will be good year to raise poultry, for selling too many hens now and look for better conditions next year. Better book your trays ahead, as we set every Monday. Price settting this year $3.00. By coming in and making arrangements we will buy ten trays of eggs each week from good Rhode Island or Barred Rocks, fifteen cents per dozen. This is above market price so better see us early.

Yours truly,

A. B. Walker & Son

LOUISIANA SOLON DIED IN WASHINGTON EARLY HOUR MONDAY

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(P).—James Benjamin Aswell of Nat-chitoches, La., a representative from the eighth district more than sixteen years, died at his residence here early today of heart disease.

Dr. Aswell's death was sudden coming a few hours before he planned to leave for his home in Louisiana for the summer.

Ar anything misority member on As ranking minority member on the house agriculture committee, he took an active part in the formation of the legislation that created the farm board and last tall he was the leader in the fight against the administration to increase the drought loan fund to $45,000,000

$45,000,000
At the drought conference called by President Hoover last fall, he advanced a plan to loan $60-000,000 to the drought stricken farmers and when the administration through Secretary Hyde sponsored a $25,000 loan, he bitterly assalled Hoover and Hyde. Ultimately the loan aggregated $65,000,000.

(P)—Representative James Benjamin Aswell, Natchitoches, La., who died in Washington today, had represented the eighth Louisiana district in the lower house of congress for 18 years and recently had been reelected for another term in the seventy-second congress convening next December.
His death will necessitate a special election in the eighth district, composed of the parishes of Avoyelles, Grant, LaSalle, Natchitoches, Rapides, Sabine, Vernon and Winn, before the December session.

Reared on a cotton farm, he distringuished himself as an educator before entering the field of politics and was credited with the reorganization of the Louisiana public school system.

He was elected to the sixty-third congress in 1912, and had served continuously since.

New York Cotton Steady.

New York March 16.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today 3 to 6 points higher in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and higher prices for Egyptian cotton in Alexandria.

There was buying here by houses with foreign trade connections as well as covering and the market sold up to 10.91 for May and 11.47 for October or about 0 to 8 points net higher. The demand was supplied by some Southern and local selling and the volume of business tapered off after the first few minutes but prices held steady and within a point or two of the best at the end of the first half hour.

INTEREST IN TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS COUNTY MEET HIGH

ATHLETIC AND LITERARY EVENTS IN INTERSCHOLAS-TIC LEAGUE THIS WEEK

Interest in county sports has veered to track, field, and literary events, and extensive preparations are being made by State Home officials to entertain entrants from practically every Navarro county school at the annual University of Texas Interscholastic league meet, that will open Friday, March 20, and continue through Saturday, March 21, according to W. T. Brumbelow, director general, Monday.

Officials stated Monday that interest in the annual meet is running at a high pitch, and entrants in one or more events are expected from practically every county school. Mr. Brumbelow stressed punctuality, and said that contestants must be ready at the appointed time, or they will be left out of the competition.

A schedule of literary events has been drawn up by the officials, and the track and field events will follow the schedule set forth in the Interscholastic league rule book. Preliminarles in junior and senior literary events will be held Friday morning, and the finals will be reeled off Friday afternoon. In the track and field events for both juniors and seniors, the preliminaries will be held Saturday morning, beginning promptly at 9 o'clock, and finals will be concluded Saturday afternoon.

The annual Navarro county track and field meet will be held at the State Home Friday and Saturday of this week. The final touches of this week. The final touches and training for the athletes to participate in the annual affair will be given early this week, and plenty of action will be seen during the meet. The winners of the various events will compete later in the district meets to defermine the athletes to go to the state on siderable interest to be taken in the approaching season.

The Dallas Steers downed the New York Giant seconds in Dallas Saturday and Sunday to turn in their third victory of the season against that club, and to keep their undefeated record unsullied. The Wichita Falls Soudders will be met in a pair of games this weeksend.

With the winning of these two games, the Steers should have gladdened the hearts of the base-ball fans of Dallas, and caused to make the athletes to go to the state. Johnny Plerce, Tiger mentor, has been sending a number of his

No assistant coach has been produced for the Tigers next fall, but the officials have had numerous applications.

Jack Roberts, cashier of the First National bank, registered a few days ago while the writer was in the lobby when a football fan extolled the strength and dope on the University of Texas Longhorns last year and in the approaching season when the Texans invade Harvard for one of the big international combats of the year.

"You know, Paul," remarked Charley Holloway, insurance man, "T've got my serious doubts whether S. M. U. scores on the Long-horns next year," with a wink in our direction, "much less beat them. Texas will mop up on S. M. U., that's a cinch."

And then the explosion occurred, with Roberts in high gear. Roberts formerly possed in Pallas and is surface and international combusts of the year.

"At a public hearing before the railroad commission during October of last year uncontradicted testimony developed the fact that 150,000,000 cubic feet of gas were going to waste each day in this field. The profligate waste for each day is an amount in excess of the total amount of gas used in Texas for domestic purposes during an entire year. Therefore, on the present basis of gas consumption, enough gas has been livested in this one field during the past 18 months to feed the I gas meters of Texas for more

"He is the most natural hitting rookie I have even seen," Phelan said of Crew.

White was well advertised before coming here and is llving up to advance notices.

HOME RUN WITH ONE ON BASE DECIDING FACTOR IN INTER-CLUB CONTEST

By FAUL MOORE
Sun Sports Editor.
The Yannigans defeated the Regulars of the Dallas Steers in their intra-club contest here Monday afternoon, 5-4, due principally to the home run that Borelli whammed over the left-center palisade with a runner aboard in the eighth stanza. Each club scored one run in the ninth inning, but the Yans maintained their scant lead, retiring the side in the last half of the ninth with the tying run on third base.
Each side secured eight bingles during the game which followed an hour's hitting practice.
J. Minougue, rookie left hander, and Lee (Spec) Meadows were the starting pitchers. The score was deadlocked when they retired after five innings on the mound.
The Regulars scored in the ring stanza when Minougue was wild and a couple of errors and two walks netted a lone marker. The Yannigans is the fourth after Borelli had singled to center, was a deadlocked when they retired after a walk and a pair of singles. The score was tied by the Yannigans in the fourth after Borelli had singled to center, we had to third on an infield out after turban had been hit by a pitched ball, and scored on a double steal.
R. Stewart and Wende looked fine on the mound during the last four innings.
Skipper Morse gave his club only one long session of work Monday, but plans two periods Tuesday on the termoning, and a nine-inning game in the afternoon.
Bill Parker, Associated Press sports writer falsas, is due to arrive in the Steer aamp Monday night or Tuesday on his tour of the training camps of the Texas League.
